NOW AVAILABLE FOR REVIEW.

Colorado Springs, CO, November 13, 2023 – Marissa Pedroza announces the publication of Tales from the Dead End of the Street, a collection of mystery, thriller, and fantasy stories. The short story collection will be released on May 13, 2024, for $2.99, wherever e-books are sold.

In “She Remembers,” a young girl focuses on her dead father while hiding away from burglars. While the remnant of their home is shattered by this invasion, Traci finds a way to say goodbye to her protector while facing helplessness in the dark.

Leonie receives messages from an invisible force in “Into the Light”. All she wants is to find her missing brother, but something keeps trying to communicate with her—something that knows what is coming next.

Set in the fantasy world of Tisal on inner earth, “Night of the Naabaahii” is the origin story of a female warrior risking it all for love. Mahayla Tacha was born into a family of warriors, becoming one of the best defenders of her kingdom. What she wants is to be a woman. To love and be loved by a man who sees her only as a great warrior.
